

San Francisco Workshop
May 10, 2017 | 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Yerba Buena Room in the offices of the Metropolitan Transportation Commission
375 Beale Street, San Francisco, CA 94105

Presenters from UCLA Institute of Transportation Studies: Juan Matute, Project Manager and Teo Wickland, Senior Researcher

Conveners from Caltrans Division of Rail and Mass Transportation: Jila Priebe, Office Chief and Joshua Pulverman, Senior Planner

Agenda

2:00 PM Welcome and Introductions

2:05 PM Presentation

UCLA researchers will present from prepared slides about the current state of transit in California and direction for the future.

2:45 PM Breakout Groups

Discussion will continue in two breakout groups, each with a separate perspective:

1) Perspective of a transit user. This group will discuss topics such as transfers, onboard experience, stop conditions, accessing information about transit, getting to and from transit, among other topics.

Led by Teo Wickland

2) Perspective of someone who works for a transit agency. This group will discuss topics such as planning and investment, transit data, performance measures, funding, competition and integration with transportation network companies, among other topics.

Led by Juan Matute.

4:00 PM Adjourn

Desk Copies of the Statewide Transit Strategic Plan's Baselines Report are available for onsite review. Paper versions of the STSP Public Survey are available in the room. You can also complete the survey by going to <http://bit.ly/STSPSurvey>